Dear Parents,

Greetings of the day!

You're cordially invited to our first parent community-building session at our school on Saturday, April 20th, 2024. We're hosting a friendly football match for the Gentleman and energizing Zumba and yoga sessions for the Ladies.

Gentlemen, join us for a fun football match where you can showcase your athletic skills and connect in a friendly competition. Whether you're a seasoned player or new to the game, your participation will add to the camaraderie of the day.

Ladies, treat yourself to rejuvenating Zumba and yoga sessions led by experienced instructors. These activities promise to refresh your body and mind, offering a chance to unwind and recharge.

Beyond the physical activities, this event is about building a strong community, forging new friendships, and strengthening existing bonds. It's a time to laugh, cheer each other on, and create lasting memories with fellow parents.

The reporting time is scheduled for 7:30 AM, with a warm-up session beginning promptly at 7:45 AM. The sessions for both football and Zumba are set to run from 8:00 AM to 9:00 AM, followed by refreshments

Please note, the dress code for gentlemen is comfortable lowers or sports trousers paired with a T-shirt, along with sports shoes, football trainers, or studs, and appropriate sporting gear. For ladies, the dress code is comfortable and modest sports attire, along with sports shoes suitable for the activities.

Fill in the participation form attached below to confirm your presence. Please note that participation in the football match will be on a first-come, first-served basis due to limited team slots available
